JERRY ON THE JOB

JERRY SHIPS A CIRCUS.

A Cartoon Comedy ✓

by H. C. Hobson

Animated by Will Powers ✓

- Scene #1. Jerry sitting on the railroad station. A circus man comes up and says, (Balloon) "Will you help me ship my circus." Jerry says (Balloon) "Sure". They walk out of scene.
- Scene #2. Circus man standing in the freight car. He says to Jerry, (Balloon) "Bring in the monkey." Jerry goes out of the scene.
- Scene #3. A lot of animals in cages and boxes. Jerry opens a box and takes a monkey in his arms. The monkey bites Jerry's nose. Jerry throws up his hands and the monkey gets away. Jerry follows him into the next scene.
- Scene #4. Railroad tracks and a signal with two signal arms on it. The monkey climbs a signal pole and sits on the lower signal. Jerry says, (Balloon) "Come down." The monkey takes a lamp and drops it on Jerry's head. Jerry takes ahold of the lever and says, (Balloon) "For the last time come down." The monkey shakes his fist at Jerry. Then Jerry pulls the lever and the upper signal arm hits the monkey on the head and the monkey falls. Jerry standing below with outstretched arms catches the monkey, takes him to the circus man and says (Balloon) "Here's your monkey." The circus man says, (Balloon) "Bring on the elephant."
- Scene #5. Jerry goes to scene of animals and pulls the elephant by the trunk and says (Balloon) "Come on." The elephant does not move. Jerry gets in back of it and pushes it but it won't move. Then Jerry takes a pin from his coat and sticks it in the elephant. The elephant runs up to the circus and Jerry after him saying, (Balloon) "Here's your elephant." The man says, (Balloon) "Bring on the lion."
- Scene #6. Jerry goes up to the lion's cage. The lion opens his mouth and sticks out his claws at Jerry. Jerry's hair stands up in the air. He goes to the circus man and says, (Balloon) "The lion ain't ready yet." The man says, (Balloon) "Bring on the bear."
- Scene #7. Jerry goes after the bear stoops over to take hold of the chain which is lying on the ground one end attached to the bear. As he stoops over a Billy Goat in back of him bucks him. He turns around and kicks the bear. The bear picks him up by the seat of the pants and carries him out to the circus man and then drops into a tub of water which is standing there. The man says, (Balloon) "Bring on the dogs."
- Scene #8. Jerry goes to the dog box and opens it and the dogs jump on him and then run. Jerry chases them up to a building marked "Sausage Factory." The dogs go in. There is a butcher standing at a sausage machine. He picks the dogs up and puts them in the sausage machine and starts to grind out sausages. Jerry comes in and takes two strings of sausages, one in each hand. Brings them to the circus man and says (Balloon) "Here's your dogs, I am through." Fade out.
